Both T.Vasantha Bhargavi and Viswanath Vinod Kumar, who are said to have been married, had sent a letter bringing to the notice of this Court certain problems and this Court had taken up the letter and numbered as Writ Petition No.10243 of 2007 seeking mandamus to call for the record and remarks from the respondents herein in connection with the marriage of the petitioners herein on their own will and consent, without any fear, and with love and affection and married against the wishes of their parents and also to pass appropriate orders directing the concerned authorities to protect the wedlock of the petitioners herein and pass such other or further orders as this Honourable Court may deem fit and proper in the circumstances of the case.

It is stated by both T.Vasantha Bhargavi and Viswanath Vinod Kumar, who are present in the Court, that there are no compulsions or threats and they are leading happy married life. The said statement made by the petitioners is hereby recorded. It is needless to mention that the respondents are bound to provide necessary assistance for such petitioners who had married and who are leading happy marital life. However, in the light of the statement made by both T.Vasantha Bhargavi and Viswanath Vinod Kumar, petitioners herein, this Court is of the considered opinion that no further orders need be passed in this writ petition.

With the above observation, the writ petition is closed. No order as to costs.
